Sharon stated, "My mother is the late Freda Ann Semaken, she was raised in Galena by Grandpa Ben and Grandma Lucy and my father is the late Jay Schrock (Grant) of Tanana. I was raised by my grandmother Ellen Peters in Nulato. I now live in Fairbanks with my husband Vern and children. This transition has taught me, we are always learning, family will get us through anything, hard work is necessary for success and to give back. I believe through the skills and knowledge that I have gained over the years, this can be of use for our village corporation. While, I am still learning, I see Gana-A'Yoo as a stable village corporation that is continually investing in our villages. Gana-A'Yoo has supported me through my educational goals and I would like to continue to have the opportunity to give back what has been invested in me. Masee"

Joshua stated, "At this critical juncture of our political and business environment, I hope to re-engage with Gana-A'Yoo, alongside the existing Board and senior management. The contribution that I'd provide would be to identify areas where continuing excellent services with continuous improvement would be beneficial. Besides those apparent expansion areas, I would give further insight into other industries where new opportunities are emerging. There are many possibilities that I feel should be considered as part of the company's strategic plan. Being a member of the Board that identifies and invests in expansive options for shareholders' benefit is something that I aspire to."
